CLOSE FINISHES
AT POUGHKEEPSIEThe 2:14 Trot Developed the Most Sensational Finish of the Week. Geers Drove a Great Heat.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 22.—Close finishes were in order in the last day of the grand circuit meeting at Hudson River Driving Park yesterday afternoon. The 2:14 trot in the first heat, developed the most sensational finish of the week. The Aloha led handily to 100 feet of the wire when Geers, back of Loyal, made one of his old time drives and fairly lifted his horse under the wire, winning the heat by a head in 2:10½, which was ¼ of a second better than his winning time last week. Loyal won the second heat with more to spare and entering the select 2:10 list, by 2:09¼. Loyal was never in serious danger in the third heat. The 2:20 trot, although a straight heat affair was by no means one sided. Cereal the winner, had to fight Neyeone most of the time and the latter was a fair bidder for the first heat when she broke.

CATCHES BALL OFF MONUMENT.

Street of the Washington Team Wins
$500 Bet By Its Host.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Charles Street catcher on the Washington baseball team, yesterday won a bet of $500 made with John Biddle of this city by performing the unprecedented, though oft-attempted, feat of catching a regulation baseball dropped from the top of the Washington monument. It was necessary to get a permit from Col. Brownell in charge of the monument, before this feat could be undertaken because of the extreme danger involved. The ball was dropped from one of the small windows near the top of the monument at a height of 550 feet above the pavement, where Street caught it on the thirteenth attempt, the failure being due to a rather brisk wind, which deflected the ball in its course. Street was considerably jarred by the impact of the sphere on his big catcher's mitt, but, nevertheless, was ready to catch in this afternoon's American league game.

FAILED TO ENTER

George B. Cox, Political "Boss," to Leave Cincinnati for New York.

Cincinnati, Aug. 22.—Having failed to gain entrance into the exclusive set here, George B. Cox, Republican boss of Hamilton county, is said to be making preparations to remove to New York and make an attempt to break into society there. Cox is disposing of all his Cincinnati real estate, having already sold to the Grey Eagle saloon and another in the Tenderloin, where he got his first start as bartender.

The Coxes tried to break into the upper set at the time Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, then Miss Alice Roosevelt, was being entertained here the first time. The President's daughter openly snubbed them when introduced in a box at the Latona race track, in spite of the fact that Cox made Longworth what he is politically.

Cox will not deny that he is about to remove to New York, but he doesn't think anybody's business.

It is pointed out that he has twice "abducted" in politics and has large theatrical and other financial interests in New York which might make it logical for him to go there.

PARKER SPEAKS ON THE TARIFF.

Tells People He doubts Republicans Will Do Anything.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 22.—Judge Alton B. Parker spoke to an audience of about eighteen hundred people at the Coliseum last night. The meeting was held under the joint auspices of the King County Democratic Club and the Bryan volunteers. His speech dealt with issues of the national campaign, and he devoted his principal attention to the evils of the great corporations which he declared are fostered by the present high tariff. The remedy, Judge Parker declared, is in lowering the tariff wall and this he doubted if the Republican party would do if continued in power another four years. Judge Parker denounced the idea of Federal control of corporations as a remedy. He recommended a statute imposing a jail sentence upon corporation officials convicted of contributing money to a campaign fund. Delancy Nicol of New York followed Judge Parker in a short address.

TAXATION
GRIEVANCESWere Heard by Civil Authority Board Last Night

18 REQUESTS GRANTED

Central Vermont Railroad Claim of Exemption on Certain Property Was Referred to the City's Legal Adviser.

Thirty-two petitions for abatement of taxes were presented last evening for the consideration of the board of civil authority and out of the 32 requests 18 were granted, 13 dismissed and one was referred to the city attorney to report at the next meeting of the board which will be held next Wednesday evening.

The case referred to the city attorney was that of the Central Vermont railroad which asked for an abatement of a tax of $138, which had been levied on the Burnham meadow real estate and the property the company recently bought of L. J. Bolster, part of which is used as a freight depot. The company petitions for abatement on the ground that the property acquired for railroad purposes is not taxable under the statute. Many of the members of the board thought that Burnham's meadow property was not being used for railroad purposes and had never been since the railroad bought it, but that the company was renting it for a wood yard, and for this reason it should be taxable.

The following are the petitions and the action taken on them by the board: George F. Hill, poll tax, doubled. He said he was out of the city when he received notice that his tax had been doubled. He did not know that he had to give in an inventory. Dismissed.

Oscar Borg asked for an abatement of the tax on $450 as a mistake had been made in filing out his inventory, he being credited with $500 in the bank where it should have been $30. He thought the assessors had made the mistake in setting down the figures. Abated.

Cesare Capri, poll tax doubled. He came to Barre from Italy last March and did not know about giving in an inventory. Dismissed.

Giuseppe Medici, poll tax doubled. He claimed he was in East Barre from the middle of April until July and did not receive any notice. One half of tax rebated.

Andrew Allen claimed he was in Scotland on April 1st but arrived in Barre May 20. Thought he ought not to be taxed. Dismissed.

Andrew Freeland claimed he returned from Scotland in May and ought not to be taxed. Dismissed.

Norman York, poll tax doubled. He admitted that he received the assessors' notice to give in his inventory but he said his wife was sick at the time and he overlooked it. Dismissed.

Albert Wheeler had paid poll taxes in both this city and Montpelier and wanted his tax here rebated. He claimed that he and his family were staying at the home of his parents in Montpelier on April 1st and were there until the middle of May. His household goods were left in this city and he was paying rent on a tenement while away. He said he voted in Montpelier last spring and supposed he was a resident there. Dismissed.

John Milne, poll tax doubled. He claimed he was working in Williams-town from November until May and when he received a notice, notifying him that his tax had been doubled, he appeared twice before the assessors and stated the circumstances and they had told him that his tax would not be doubled. Martin Riley stated to the board that the assessors did tell Mr. Milne that his tax would not be doubled but they afterward found out that Mr. Milne had returned to this city to work several weeks before he had told them he did and for that reason they doubled his tax. Dismissed.

Ambrose Bianchi claimed his house had been over appraised. Dismissed.

William H. Palmer asked to have his tax abated as he was lame and unable to earn a living. Abated.

F. D. Coffin asked to have poll tax rebated for the reason that he was in debt and had had luck and sickness in his family. Abated.

John Cayia asked to have his tax of $23 abated as he had been sick and unable to work for the past two years. Has a family of five children. Was abated last year. Abated.

George Lavolette, poll tax doubled. Claimed he was out of town and did not receive notice. Dismissed.

C. P. Worthen of Newton, Mass., asked to have poll tax rebated as he was not a resident of the state and had not been for several years. Rebated.

Neddo Brothers had been taxed on 4,900 feet of lumber logs more than owned. Assessor V. E. Ayers stated that the claim was right. Abated.

John Broderick had been taxed on a lot of sand which he did not own. Abated.

Nat. Boody had paid taxes on a horse in both this city and Marshfield. The horse was being kept in Marshfield on April 1st and the listers in that town had taxed it. Rebated.

George Eason claimed that a mistake had been made in his inventory listing that he had $900 in a bank outside of the state. He said he did have that amount three years ago but he put it into a quarry that failed and he lost it. Dismissed.

C. H. Campbell claimed he had paid poll taxes in both this city and Old Orchard, Me. He did not care where he paid the tax but did not want to pay it twice. He had been in Old Orchard most of the time all winter but his household goods had been left here and owned a house here. Dismissed.

W. N. Turner claimed he was not a resident of Barre on April 1st but was living in Braintree and had paid taxes there. The assessors stated he was in Barre and gave in his inventory. Dismissed.

Standard Oil company asked for a rebate of $23 on their taxes on account of their oil tanks having been overvalued in the appraisal. Was abated last year. Rebated.

Frank Calder claimed that the assessors had credited him with having $700 in the banks. He claimed he did not have any money in the banks and wondered where the assessors got their information. The assessors claimed they got it from the banks. Dismissed.

George T. Troup wanted poll tax abated as he was a resident of Albany, N. Y. Abated.

The tax on some real estate on Maple avenue, owned by Mary Reed, which had been abated for the past three years was again abated.

The poll tax of 1906 of H. O. Shattuck was abated as it was learned that he was a resident of Laconia, N. H., that year and had paid taxes there.

In the 1904 list of Josephine Laramie a mistake had been made in listing a lot at $300 that should have been $30. Rebated.

Fred Cassie's poll tax was abated as he had gone to Albany, N. Y.

The taxes of Giuseppe Bianchi, Robert Cordiner and John McKerron, all deceased, were abated.

TWO CANDIDATES
WERE THE SPEAKERSJohn W. Gordon and Joseph A. DeBoer Spoke at a Republican Rally in Montpelier Last Night.

The Republican candidates for city representative from Barre and from Montpelier were the speakers at an enthusiastic Republican rally at Montpelier last night following the raising of a campaign flag across State street from the Union to the Ellis block. The street had a large crowd when W. A. Lord, in a few words formally presented the flag and then called for three cheers. The Montpelier Military band then headed a procession to the armory where the speaking was conducted before 500 people.

W. A. Lord introduced the speakers, John W. Gordon of Barre confining himself largely to national issues and Joseph A. DeBoer of Montpelier to state matters. Both were listened to with close attention. Mr. Gordon laid particular stress on the employers' liability legislation and called attention to the promise of the Republicans for legislation in that line. Coming down to the local issues he said that he expected to see Montpelier elect Joseph A. DeBoer as representative, although he gave Mr. Senior, the Democratic candidate, credit for being a good fellow, a good citizen and a smart man, although, added the speaker, he is "erratic as he is handsome," thus provoking a laugh.

Mr. DeBoer's talk was a frank statement along all the lines he handled and he mentioned the fact that although he was at the head of a corporation—a mutual corporation—he believed in corporation taxation according to their service, thus setting at rest whatever fear there might have been in the minds of Montpelier citizens that he would seek to secure legislation favorable to corporations. He convinced his hearers of his sincerity. He stated that if elected representative he should give them his thoughtful, honest service.

The big musical event of the season, "The Garden Party," which is to be given in this city on October 8 and 9 under the auspices of the Civic Federation of Women's clubs, is something entirely new in the amusement line. It will be given by local talent and directed by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rodenbaugh of Boston. These entertainers are too well known to need any introduction to Barre audiences.

The idea of "The Garden Party" was taken from the lawn fetes which are given every year at Newport and Bar Harbor among the summer colony. The stage will be set to represent the lawn of a wealthy cottager on a summer evening, beautifully decorated with colored lights, fancy lanterns, flags, parasols, etc., while the guests are seated at refreshment tables or strolling about the grounds.

The whole affair is in the nature of a musical comedy although there is no decided plot. The songs, dances, choruses and other specialties are contributed by the guests, while the comedy is furnished by six colored waiters. Some charming song and dance numbers by double quartets and sextettes will be given, some being taken from the big city comedies, some being originated by the directors.

The entertainment has been given in cities like Portland, Me., Newport and Woodstock, R. I., New London, Hartford and New Haven, Conn., and Albany, N. Y., and will be the biggest, brightest and best local entertainment ever given in Barre. Remember the date and arrange your engagements accordingly.
